1o Interest rate caps, participation rates are subject to change(bold text)

o After the contract is issued, the account value remains in a holding account receiving the guaranteed minimum interest rate, until it is transferred to the allocation options on a sweep date (currently the 14th and 27th of each month). Paperwork and all premium must be received in good order one business day before the sweep date for the account value to be transferred on the current month's sweep date (two business days before the sweep date if it falls on a weekend). Otherwise, the account value remains in the holding account until the following month's sweep date.

o For cash with application, the interest rates, interest caps and participation rates will be those in effect on the contract's sweep date.

Products are issued by Columbus Life Insurance Company, Cincinnati, OH, a member of Western & Southern Financial Group. Columbus Life operates in DC and all states except NY. Payment of benefits under annuity contracts and life policies is the obligation of, and is guaranteed by, Columbus Life. Guarantees are based on the claims-paying ability of the insurer. Products are backed by the full financial strength of Columbus Life. Earnings and pre-tax payments are subject to income tax at withdrawal. Withdrawals may be subject to charges. Neither Western & Southern member companies, nor their agents, offer tax advice. Interest rates are declared by the insurance company at annual effective rates, taking into account daily compounding of interest. Product and feature availability, as well as benefit provisions, vary by state. See your financial professional for product details and limitations.

IUL is a Universal Life policy. Universal Life Insurance has insurance related costs. Premiums paid must produce sufficient cash value to pay insurance charges. Any indexed returns do not protect against lapse if premiums and returns do not provide sufficient cash value to cover loan interest and insurance costs.
