

United Life

Product Specific Training

The product specific training is included in the appointment paperwork. There will be two Product-at-a-glance pages to review, and a signature page to sign. That is all that is required for training for their annuity products.