Annuity Product Training Instructions

Prior to being able to do your product training, you will need to be appointed with F & G and have established a login to Saleslink on the F & G website. Here are the instructions for logging in to Saleslink.

1. Visit saleslink.fglife.com
2. Click on "For Financial & Insurance Professional" located at the top of the page
3. Enter your username, which is your agent number
4. Enter your password, which is a lowercase letter "s" followed by your Social Security number with no dashes or spaces
5. Review and accept all required agreements in order to activate your account

If you have any difficulties, please call their Customer Care Center at 800.445.6758 or email them at salesdesk@fglife.com.

Now you are ready to complete product training. Here are those instructions.

1. Log in to SalesLink
2. Click on "Training > Required Annuity Product Training"
3. Click on the appropriate link in the "Product Training Module – Online Certification" column
4. Finish the training and complete the on-line certification showing that you have satisfied this requirement
